

..News Gathered From Southside..

Without work and practically starving, M. A. Pace, better known as "Pace," originally from North Carolina, but who has made his home in Manchester for the past few weeks, was found lying prostrate upon the ground near the Dunlop Mills yesterday by Sergeant Wright, in such a weakened condition from lack of food and over indulgence in drink that he had to be carried to the police station, where after heroic efforts on the part of Drs. Broadnax and Mathers, he soon revived. The doctors, while recognizing that the man had been drinking, stated that his physical condition was primarily due to lack of food, and but for this fact what he had drunk would have had no effect upon him. Upon fully recovering, Pace, who was locked up at the police station, stated that since Monday he had been without anything to eat. He claims to be a harness-maker, and says that on Monday last he went to Richmond in search of work, but was unable to secure it. On Tuesday, however, he says, he spent for whiskey, but with a small amount he bought food, which was the last he had taken until Sergeant Wright found him.

YOUNG VETERANS ELECT OFFICERS

Robert Mayo, a small colored boy, while working in the garden of Mr. A. C. Atkinson, No. 1518 Porter Street, picked up a pocketbook belonging to Mr. Atkinson containing $105, and quit his job. Robert didn't notice that there was any money in the purse, but took it home and carefully concealed it behind a far in the pantry. Mr. Atkinson reported the loss to the police, and Sergeant Wright arrested the boy, who broke down and confessed that he had the money, and showed where it was hidden. Mr. Atkinson said that he had been working in his garden and possibly dropped the pocketbook. Mayo, who bears a good reputation, was bailed by his father, and will appear before Mayor Maurice this morning.

Laundry Changes Hands.

The Southern Laundry, with offices at No. 204 North Ninth Street and plant at No. 508 and 510 East Cary Street, was sold yesterday to Mrs. Ida E. Perry, of the Perry Laundry, No. 508 West Broad Street. The deal was negotiated through the Anderson Real Estate and Law Company. Mrs. Perry, the new owner, will continue to run both places, and will greatly improve her new plant. She will take charge at once. The price paid was about $5,000.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Virginia E. Boyd.

Mrs. Virginia E. Boyd died at her home on Tuesday night, at 10:30 o'clock, after a lingering illness. Born in Petersburg, Mrs. Boyd was the daughter of the late William H. Nalle and Edna Hewitt, and a sister of the late Dr. J. R. Nalle. She was the widow of Mr. John Wesley Boyd, a resident of this city for many years, and was much beloved by her family and a large circle of friends. She was a faithful member of the Centenary Church. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Mary E. Bland, and her son, Mr. James N. Boyd, and the following grandchildren: Elizabeth, Virginia, Mildred, Mary, James R. N. Richard and John W. Boyd, and Virginia, Fanny and John Boyd Bland.

Thomas G. Burton.

Mr. Thomas G. Burton, of No. 502 East Leigh Street, died at night shortly after 11 o'clock, in the Virginia Hospital. He had been sick for several weeks and was in operation from the effects of which he never recovered. Mr. Burton was born in Nottingham county sixty-seven years ago, being the son of Mr. William Burton, of that county. For many years he was in the music business in this city. He was one of the members of the old Richmond Music Company. A few years ago he retired from business on account of his health, but had returned to leave a few weeks before his death. He leaves his widow, who was Miss Molly Cary, of Lunenburg county, and nine children: four daughters—Mrs. A. L. Kelley, of Lynchburg, and Mrs. Woody Malloy, of Richmond, and Virginia Dare Burton, of Richmond.

THE STURDIEST peoples of the earth drink beer—drink it from childhood to age. And those are the peoples who suffer least from nervousness and from dyspepsia. When one needs more vitality, the Doctor says "drink beer." The barley is food; the hops are a tonic. The trifle of alcohol is an aid to digestion. The proper drinking of beer—but not the abuse of it—is good for the weak and the well. And not the least of the good comes through flushing the system; in getting rid of the waste. But a beer to be healthful needs to be pure. And it must be well aged, else the after-result is biliousness. That is why we are so careful with Schlitz. We double the necessary cost of our brewing to insure absolute purity. And we age the beer for months before marketing. It gives you the good without the harm.

DEATHS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LEBESBURG, VA., April 29.—News has been received here of the death of Mrs. Nannie P. Janney, wife of Mr. Charles P. Janney, a prominent attorney at Leesburg, which occurred on Monday at Los Angeles, Cal., to which place she had gone to recover her health. Death was due to acute bronchitis. She was a Miss Pollock, daughter of the late Rev. A. D. Pollock, an eminent Presbyterian divine, of Warrenton. She is survived by her husband, three sons and two daughters. Sydnor F. Henry.

WASHINGTON, VA., April 29.—Colonel T. B. Massie, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of this county, died this morning at 2 o'clock at his residence, Meadow Grove. Colonel Massie had been in failing health since winter, having contracted the grip from which he could not rally, and his friends had been anxious regarding the state of his health. His death is a shock to the county. The deceased had been supervisor for his district for twenty-eight years until last fall, when he declined to be a candidate for re-election, although he would have had no opposition if he had been a candidate. He was also commander of Rappahannock Camp of Confederate Veterans and always took a deep interest in the Confederate remnant. He had two sons by his first wife, who are Mr. Wade H. Massie, a prominent lawyer at Newport News, both of whom were with him when he died. He will be buried to-morrow at 3 P. M. at his home, with services by the pastor of Battle Run Church, of which he was a member. George Oliver, Jr.
